Welcome to the oldest café in Bucharest, “Cafeneaua Veche 9”!

We are located in the Old Centre of Bucharest, the heart of the city, in a historic building, attested in 1812 and deeply entwined with the history, culture and art of the city.

In its heyday, Cafeneaua Veche, a meeting place of the elite of yesteryear, hosted personalities such as Mihai Eminescu, Ion Luca Caragiale or even King Carol II.

Cafeneaua Veche was the place where Mihai Eminescu, Romania's national poet, at that time Editor-in-Chief of “Timpul” publication, enjoyed his coffee. Hotel Universal, the “Timpul” headquarters, was on Covaci Street, right next to the place where you can enjoy a coffee or a delicious meal right now.

The culture and the incredible heritage of the place have driven us to start an ambitious project, in which we believe wholeheartedly. That's why we have renovated and reopened to the public the oldest café in Bucharest.

The restaurant in the Old Centre aims to express our love for the city, its history and culture, but also our modern spirit, reflected in the attitude and the amazing food we serve.

We are happy to welcome guests of all ages, with various passions and values, in an environment where culinary art blends perfectly with the flavour of the 100% Arabica coffee, but especially with evenings of theatre and live performances that spark-up the atmosphere of dinners and enhance the cultural notes of our place.

Delight your senses!
